Garage Door Design Ideas

1. Carriage House Steel Door With Deco Hardware

According to Spruce, steel is the most popular garage door material...and for good reason! This look is as classic as it is durable, and we love the way the white trim of the home ties into the white steel finish for an eye-catching pop!

Did you know that steel garage doors are more durable, secure, and low maintenance than wood or aluminum? Plus, sleek steel doors are both sharp-looking and provide fantastic insulation!

2. Custom Wood Sectional Door

Talk about breathtaking! The rich wood tones and natural grain mean this sectional door really makes a statement.

3. Residential Full Glass Door

Ready to let a little light shine in? One of our favorite garage door ideas are these full glass panels. Glass doors are actually extremely low maintenance, and don't need painting like other materials. Plus, the aluminum frame makes them surprisingly strong, resilient, and of course...beautiful!

4. Colored Steel Garage Doors

Did you know that steel doesn't always have to be white and boring? Check out the rich colors and textures of these beauties! All of the security benefits of steel and all of the design elements of wood. What's not to love?

5. Copper Garage Doors

If luxury is your style, and you want to make a statement like no one else on your block, check out these garage door design ideas! Copper is certainly stunning, but these doors aren't all show. Copper garage doors are perfect for noise reduction, durability, have little upkeep, and are naturally insulated.

6. Custom Carriage House Doors

This timeless black-on-black created a look that was hard not to love. Whether you have one door or three, you can't go wrong with a classic, and these custom carriage house doors are proof!
